

Public Services

Public Services: Uniformed Protective Services Level 3 Full-time

In Brief

Start Date / Duration

This course starts in September 2024 and runs for two years.

Entry Requirements

- Five GCSEs at grade 5 or above including GCSE English and Maths, together with a good school report.
- Alternatively, you will have successfully completed the Level 2 Diploma Introduction to the Emergency Services with a merit/distinction profile including GCSE English and Maths at grade 5 or above.
- You will also be required to complete a favourable interview.
- In addition, you should have a good general standard of health. Most chronic conditions (e.g. asthma, epilepsy) would prevent an individual from successfully applying for certain job roles.

You will achieve

- Pearson BTEC Level 3 Foundation/Extended Diploma in Public Services.

Course Overview

If you're interested in joining one of the uniformed public services, such as the Police Force, Ambulance Service, Fire and Rescue Service, British Army, Royal Navy or Royal Air Force, this Extended Diploma in Public Services will prepare you for the mental and physical demands of life in the services.

Course Content

The programme consists of a combination of lectures, practical activities, oral presentations, tutorials, individual research and group work. Speakers from other relevant organisations will also visit classes. As part of the course you will be expected to undertake a range of outdoor activities, including visits to various public services, e.g. Army, RAF and the Magistrates Court. You will also take part in expeditions which may involve overnight stays.

In addition to general class work, you will be expected to use a range of textbooks for research purposes, as well as the IT facilities in the Learning Resource Centre. You will also have the opportunity to obtain additional qualifications and take part in sport enrichment activities.

Course themes:

- Criminal investigation procedures and tactics
- Police powers and the law
- Planning and responding to emergency incidents and security threats
- Custodial care
- Behaviour and discipline in the protective services
- Government and the protective services

How will I be assessed?

Assessment will occur continually throughout the programme. You will have unit assignments to complete and will be assessed on your group and individual work. You will also have time-constrained assignments, as well as oral presentations. Each individual unit and the full award are graded at Pass, Merit or Distinction level.

What Equipment Will I Need?

All Sport and Public Services students will be expected to wear a Barnsley Sports Academy (BSA) hooded top* and polo shirt*, along with dark tracksuit bottoms and sports trainers. During practical sessions, kit will consist of a Barnsley Sports Academy t-shirt*, dark shorts and sports trainers. Non-regulation clothing/footwear is not permitted. Students will also require ring-binders, writing materials, paper/stationery and core textbooks.

Public Services students will also require outdoor activity clothing, such as walking boots and waterproof clothing.

Barnsley Sports Academy clothing marked with an asterisk(*) can be purchased from the Sports Centre Reception.

Where will I study?
