

Go with the Flow

A fluent, flowing style helps the reader to follow your ideas and your arguments. Try using some of the words listed below to make your writing more fluent and to introduce your further reading that backs up the points you are making in your writing.

Order	Contrast
In the first place	But
Firstly	Still
To begin with	However
Secondly	Yet
Lastly	Nevertheless
Finally	On the contrary
	Despite
Example
For instance	Addition
For Example	Moreover
Thus	Furthermore
	What is more
Time	In addition
At first
Next	Reason
Later	For this reason
In the end	Owing to this
Eventually	Therefore
Attitude	Result
Naturally	As a result
Of course	Consequently
Luckily	So
(Un)Fortunately	Thus
Admittedly	Accordingly
Undoubtedly
	Summary
Comparison	Finally
In contrast	In conclusion
Similarly	To sum up