Yes Man (Comedy, 12A)

Carl Allen (Jim Carrey) is a bored bank loan manager, stuck in a rut, who says no to everything in his life. He tries a personal development program based on a very simple idea: say yes to everything!

This is a charming, fun comedy which you should say yes to!

Happy Death Day (Horror, 15)

Tree Gelbman (Jessica Rothe) is a college student who has found herself reliving the same day over and over again. It's not a good day either, she is hungover, she has the worst classes to get to, it's her birthday and the icing on the cake is, someone is trying to murder her. To break the time loop she must find out the identity of her killer and survive her birthday!

This is Groundhog Day mixed with Scream, and is a fun, jokey horror movie. Nothing is taken that seriously here. Put this on your birthday wish list.

Book of Life (Family, U)

Manolo, a young man who is torn between fulfilling the expectations of his family and following his heart, embarks on an adventure that spans three fantastic worlds where he must face his greatest fears.

This is a fantastic family movie with amazing animation and is also produced by Guillermo Del Toro (Shape of Water) - just a fun fact.

Big Fish (Fantasy, PG)

Edward Bloom (Ewan McGregor and Albert Finney) is a man with a huge passion for adventure and tall tales. His son, Will Bloom (Billy Crudup), sees his father as a mystery and wants to separate the facts from the fiction.

This is a big movie with a big heart and it's a Tim Burton film, so if you know his style, you will know if it is for you. Warning! Have tissues at the ready.

The Big Lebowski (Crime, Comedy, 18)

Jeff "The Dude" Lebowski (Jeff Bridges) is mistaken for a millionaire of the same name, by some men who want their money back, and they ruin his rug "that really ties the room together". He seeks restitution for his ruined rug and his bowling buddies volunteer their help, whether he likes it or not, to help get it.

A fun, quirky and smart movie by the Coen Brothers. All I can say is this movie bowls a 300!
