Course Overview

This Level 3 Extended Diploma in Performing Arts provides you with opportunities to develop and showcase your musical theatre skills or your technical skills in the creative industries.

Whether you are a triple-threat musical theatre performer, with equal skills in acting, dance and singing, want to perform in the singing and dancing ensemble of the next touring hit musical or dream of storming the West End as a leading role with your phenomenal voice and acting skills, this is the course for you!

You will specialise in musical theatre and will explore skills in acting, singing and dance by performing in our versatile venue, The Electric Theatre, as well as our more intimate studio performance space.

You will work on specialist projects, as well as large scale public performances each year, in The Electric Theatre. Our Performing Arts and Production Arts students work closely with each other so you will develop transferable skills such as communication skills and self-confidence, becoming an excellent team player and problem solver, as well as developing your specialist skills.

Course Content

This musical theatre course is highly practical and allows you to develop skills in acting, singing and dance, giving you the best chance of a fantastic career in performing arts. The course provides you with opportunities to develop your creativity, performance skills, audition preparation and professional training in each discipline. You will explore a range of performance styles such as musical comedy, Rodgers and Hammerstein, Kander and Ebb, Sondheim, juke box musicals, musical theatre, sung-through and Disney, through work on a variety of different projects.

How will I be assessed?

You will be assessed through your coursework and practical demonstrations such as performances in several public shows, as well as private class assessments throughout the year. Public performances will take place in the evenings.

What Equipment Will I Need?

You will need three sets of loose, plain black rehearsal clothes and soft indoor black shoes, such as jazz shoes or canvas pumps for practical work. For dance classes you will also need specialist dance wear and ballet shoes, your tutor will give you specific instructions on this. You will need the following stationery A4 lever arch file, dividers, plastic wallets, A4 notepad, pens and a USB stick. You will be expected to attend at least one theatre visit per term.
