Entry Requirements

You will complete a tutor assessment

You will achieve

You will achieve a City and Guilds ESOL Speaking and Listening qualification.

Course Overview

This course is for people with a good level of English who want to find jobs where they need a certain level in English, or who would like to gain qualifications in other subjects. We have highly qualified experts ready to help you! You will learn how to make and understand lots of different types of sentences and use them to talk about lots of different subjects.

Course Content

You will study five units, these are:

- Food and hobbies (including things like numbers, dates, food, clothes, shopping, TV, going to a coffee shop, using a library and volunteering for charity)
- Life in the UK (music, art, festivals, homes, family, neighbours and social media)
- Activity and health (sport, human body, going to the doctor, sleep and stress)
- English for work (jobs, places of work, getting jobs, interviews, technology and internet)
- The natural world (animals, transport, holidays, airports and museums)

How will I be assessed?

Speaking and listening exams take place in April. If needed, you can try again in June.

What Equipment Will I Need?

Please bring a pen.

Where will I study?

Old Mill Lane campus
Church Street
Barnsley
