Entry Requirements

There are no formal qualifications required but you will undertake an initial assessment at interview.

You will achieve

Level 1 Certificate in Introduction to Professional Food and Beverage Service Skills (City & Guilds)

Course Overview

This qualification is for those who want to work front of house within a hospitality environment. It is also for those learners that want a rounded knowledge of both front of house and the kitchen, which will enable them to look at more senior positions in the future. This qualification covers all aspects of the food and beverage service, it will deliver the key skills required by the learner to ensure they will have a thorough understanding of the role and expectations that any future employer will expect of them.

Course Content

Units consist of;

- Introduction to employability in the catering and hospitality industry.
- Health and safety awareness for catering and hospitality.
- Legislation in food and beverage service.
- Dealing with payments and bookings.
- Food and beverage service skills.
- Bar service skills.
- Hot beverage service skills.
- Food safety in catering.

How will I be assessed?

While this course is practical, there will be end of unit tests set by City & Guilds. The theory elements will underpin the skills you learn in practical lessons and are question and assignment based.

What Equipment Will I Need?

We run a very professional department and your uniform and equipment is integral to that professionalism. You are required to provide your own uniform and equipment, such as knives. At college, we use a local supplier who gives a good discount to all our learners and we will provide you with a uniform and equipment list.
