Classes run on Thursdays between 1pm - 5pm. The course will run for 10-12 weeks.

Entry Requirements

You must be aged 19 or over. There are no specific recommended prior learning requirements for this qualification, however, you may find it helpful if you have already achieved a Level 1 qualification. The ability to complete written assignments using an acceptable level of English language is required.

You will achieve

NCFE Level 2 Certificate in Counselling Skills.

Course Overview

This qualification is useful for anyone who would like to develop their use of counselling skills for use in either work or a personal capacity or wish to progress onto a Level 3 Counselling Skills course.

Key topics:

- Using counselling skills
- Introduction to counselling skills theories
- Diversity and ethics in the use of counselling skills
- Counselling skills and personal development

This qualification does not qualify learners to practice as a counsellor.

Note to applicants: This course requires you to discuss personal experiences and perform self-reflection, which may bring up significant life events. Carefully consider if this course is suitable for you at this time. Students should be ready to seek external help or college counsellors if needed, especially if advised by the tutor.
